DUSTIN SPENCER ASHLEY ON EDUCATION

Bar Mitzvah Date: June 17, 2006

After looking at a large array of organizations, I decided upon Friends of Simon Wiesenthal Center. The reason that I chose this organization is to help Friends of Simon Wiesenthal Center fight the war on racism and antisemitism. I believe that Friends of Simon Wiesenthal Center for Holocaust Studies can really help in educating people of all ages and most importantly, help educate young adolescents. Educating this age group will be of the greatest value, I think. Even starting as young as the age of thirteen, this age group will, in a few decades, be in charge of the world, and our greatest weapon against antisemitism is educating the young now, so racism and antisemitism will become a thing of the past. I am donating to the Friends of Simon Wiesenthal Center to educate others about tolerance, racism and antisemitism, in an attempt to make sure that another Holocaust, against any people, will never occur again.

Sincerely yours,

Dustin Spencer Ashley
