Funds raised will support the exceptional work of Friends of Simon Wiesenthal Center for Holocaust Studies. FSWC is a Canadian human rights organization dedicated to fostering tolerance and understanding through community involvement, educational outreach and social action. With over 25,000 members of all faiths, it confronts important contemporary issues including racism, anti-Semitism, terrorism and genocide. Through the generous support of our donors and members, thousands of people have had the opportunity to benefit from the many programs offered by FSWC: 15,000 elementary school children have attended the production of "Gabi's Dresser", 2,000 people attended our many diversity training programs at our Resource Centre and in the fall of 2007, 10,000 public school students will see "The Shoppe on Main Street" – just to name a few. Friends is affiliated with the world-wide, Los Angeles-based Simon Wiesenthal Center, an accredited Non-Government Organization with status at international agencies, including the United Nations, UNESCO, OSCE and the Council of Europe, with offices in New York, Miami, Paris, Jerusalem, Buenos Aires and Toronto. Simon Wiesenthal died in 2005 after devoting his life to preserving the memories of the victims of the Holocaust, while simultaneously seeking justice for the war criminals.
