

FSWC Educates Milne Valley Students

February 26, 2009 (TORONTO) – On Tuesday, January 13th and Wednesday, February 25th the students of Milne Valley Middle School made history with Friends of Simon Wiesenthal Center (FSWC). Each of the 500 students that attend the school participated in the workshop Racism and Antisemitism in a Canadian Context. FSWC was honoured to play an integral role in the Milne Valley Middle School anti-racist education curriculum this year.

Congratulations to all of the students who listened attentively, shared personal thoughts and experiences, and who will move forward with the lessons they have learned to help build a world of respect, tolerance, and understanding!

About Friends of Simon Wiesenthal Center for Holocaust Studies

Friends of Simon Wiesenthal Center for Holocaust Studies is a Canadian human rights organization dedicated to fostering tolerance and understanding through community involvement, educational outreach and social action. It has 25,000 members across Canada, and confronts important contemporary issues including racism, antisemitism, terrorism and genocide. The Center is affiliated with the world-wide, Los Angeles-based Simon Wiesenthal Center, an accredited Non-Government Organization with status at international agencies, including the United Nations, UNESCO, OSCE and the Council of Europe. With over 400,000 members of all faiths around the world, the Simon Wiesenthal Center has offices in New York, Miami, Paris, Jerusalem, Buenos Aires and Toronto. Simon Wiesenthal died in 2005 after devoting his life to preserving the memories of the victims of the Holocaust, while simultaneously seeking justice for the war criminals. Visit: www.fswc.ca.
