

Volunteer Educators Make a Difference!

Left to Right: Karen Fainman, Amy Maisel, Linda Miller, Gavin Brauer, Alice Nusbaum and Dianne Roebuck

June 30, 2009 (TORONTO) –Friends of Simon Wiesenthal Center for Holocaust Studies wishes to extend our most sincere thanks and appreciation to the Volunteer Educators who helped to make the student workshops a success this year. Their generous donation of time and expertise has inspired over 3000 students in Ontario to become a voice for tolerance, justice, and human rights.

Simon Wiesenthal believed in the power of education:

*“The history of man is the history of crimes, and history can repeat.
So information is a defense.
Through this we can build, we must build, a defense against repetition.”
~ Simon Wiesenthal*

Thank you to our volunteers for helping us to continue to pursue Simon Wiesenthal’s dream: Alice Nusbaum, Amy Maisel, Barbara Shour, Bari Zittell, Dianne Roebuck, Doris Rochman, Rammy Rochman, Ellen Levine, Fran Grundman, Francine Taras, Gavin Brauer, Karen Fainman, Laura Banks, Linda Miller, Shari Wilson, and Syd Muskat.

About Friends of Simon Wiesenthal Center for Holocaust Studies

Friends of Simon Wiesenthal Center for Holocaust Studies is a Canadian human rights organization dedicated to fostering tolerance and understanding through community involvement, educational outreach and social action. It has 25,000 members across Canada, and confronts important contemporary issues including racism, antisemitism, terrorism and genocide. The Center is affiliated with the world-wide, Los Angeles-based Simon Wiesenthal Center, an accredited Non-Government Organization with status at international agencies, including the United Nations, UNESCO, OSCE and the Council of Europe. With over 400,000 members of all faiths around the world, the Simon Wiesenthal Center has offices in New York, Miami, Paris, Jerusalem, Buenos Aires and Toronto. Simon Wiesenthal died in 2005 after devoting his life to preserving the memories of the victims of the Holocaust, while simultaneously seeking justice for the war criminals. Visit: www.fswc.ca.
