

Back by Popular Demand.....

Presents the Tolerance Series for Public Schools

The Secret of Gabi's Dresser

Based on the award winning novel
by Kathy Kacer

May 9-22, 2007

Burton Auditorium at York University

Box Office: (416) 736-5888

www.yorku.ca/perform

$2 tickets for students and educators

This important play is geared to students in grades four through nine. Produced by Helena Fine at Te'Amim Music Theatre and Directed by Mark Cassidy, the play tells the experiences of a young Jewish girl in occupied Europe during World War II.

Teaching Guide and more information available online at www.te-amim.com

