

Tools for Tolerance®: Special Projects

Request and Information Form

After this profile/registration form is completed and returned we will begin to review your Tools for Tolerance®: Special Projects opportunities. This profile will be confidential and used only to help us design the program for your organization and determine whether Friends of Simon Wiesenthal Center can accommodate your needs. This information will help orient our facilitation staff to your specific needs and concerns to make your program as meaningful and practical as possible.

Please add additional sheets of paper should you require more space to provide complete responses to the questions.
